

Guidance

This passage is based on the list of Y3/Y4 statutory spelling words from the DfE English National Curriculum. They give pupils the chance to recognise these spellings in context, especially when they are spelt incorrectly.

Pupils should read through the passage where he has accidentally spelled twelve of the Y3/Y4 statutory spelling words incorrectly. Pupils should highlight the words they believe to be errors and provide the correct spellings at the bottom of the activity sheet.

Mr Whoops is a little bit clumsy...OK, OK, he's a lot clumsy! Even though he's really trying hard with his writing, he's still accidentally misspelt twelve of his Y3/Y4 key spelling words. Can you spot his mistakes?

Highlight them in the passage of text.

Could you then correct the words at the bottom of the sheet and create a list for Mr. Whoops to practise?

Activity

My favorite day of the week has always been a Sunday. Even as a young boy, I remember Sundays being different and special. Most weeks, I would visit Granny Whoops' house, where we would have roast beef, mashed potatoes and Yorkshire puddings. Although she was famous for her huge portions, I would make every last mouthful disappear. One Sunday lunchtime, I accidentally tripped while carrying my plate. Luckily, Granny caught it but got covered in gravy! From then on, Granny made me promise never to walk around with crockery ever again. She's such an over-cautious woman!

Mr. Whoops needs to practise these words:

Thanks for your help! I'll get practising these words if only I could find where I'd left my pencil!
