

ISLEHAM WEEKLY NEWS

Week commencing: Monday 25th April 2022

ISLEHAM PRIMARY DEFINITELY HAS TALENT!

We had a great selection of acts for our 'Isleham's Got Talent' school final on Friday afternoon... Our House Captains lined up to judge the show and we were all genuinely impressed by the talent on display- gymnasts and comedians, rappers, footballers, a magician, a guitar duo, singers & dancers.

There was even a staff rendition of 'Shake it off' although our judges were sadly less impressed with this one, despite the superb singing of all staff, expert choreography and Mrs Skillern's awesome dancing skills!

Special congratulations go though to Samuel and Holly from Year 2 and 3 respectively who were crowned this year's overall champions and Golden Buzzer acts. Holly showed off her amazing singing voice and Samuel entertained the whole school with his 'Greatest Showman' dance. Well done to them, and to all the entrants who really showed that Isleham Primary has amazing talent.

12 Year 6 children visited the East Cambridgeshire and Fenland Hockey tournament on Friday at Ely Hockey Club. 13 different teams were there, including many larger schools, so competition was fierce! The two Isleham Primary School teams achieved 5th and 6th places overall! A fabulous effort by all.
